MICHAEL ANDERSON

LEAD EVALUATION RESEARCHER

With over 10 years of experience in the social sciences, I am a seasoned Assessment Researcher specializing in program evaluation and policy analysis. My work has revolved around assessing the impact of social programs on community development and individual outcomes. I excel at designing and implementing comprehensive evaluation frameworks that integrate qualitative and quantitative methods, ensuring robust data collection and analysis.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Community Impact Research Institute   Mar 2018 - Present
Lead Evaluation Researcher

- Designed evaluation frameworks for assessing community development programs.
- Conducted mixed-methods research, incorporating surveys, interviews, and focus groups.
- Analyzed program data using Stata and NVivo to identify key impact indicators.
- Presented findings to stakeholders, influencing funding decisions for future programs.
- Collaborated with community organizations to align assessment efforts with local needs.
- Authored reports that received accolades for clarity and actionable insights.

State Department of Social Services   Dec 2015 - Jan 2018
Assessment Coordinator

- Managed evaluations of statewide social service programs, ensuring compliance with state regulations.
- Developed data collection instruments to capture program effectiveness.
- Collaborated with cross-functional teams to enhance evaluation methodologies.
- Utilized advanced statistical analysis to assess program impacts on target populations.
- Provided training to staff on effective data collection and reporting practices.
- Facilitated community meetings to gather feedback on program assessments.

ACHIEVEMENTS

- Recognized for outstanding contribution to community development evaluations at the annual national conference.
- Successfully secured grant funding for a new evaluation project focusing on underserved populations.
- Published a book chapter on the role of assessments in social policy development.
