

MICHAEL ANDERSON

PUBLIC HEALTH RESEARCHER

CONTACT

-  (555) 234-5678
-  michael.anderson@email.com
-  San Francisco, CA

SKILLS

- Qualitative Research
- Public Health Policy
- Data Management
- Community Engagement
- Statistical Analysis
- Workshop Facilitation

LANGUAGES

- English
- Spanish
- French

EDUCATION

BACHELOR OF ARTS IN PSYCHOLOGY,
STATE UNIVERSITY

ACHIEVEMENTS

- Received the 'Best Student Research Paper' award at the State Psychology Conference.
- Increased community workshop participation by 60% through effective outreach strategies.
- Contributed to a research paper that was published in a leading public health journal.

PROFILE

Results-driven Behavioral Sciences Research Fellow with a strong background in public health and community psychology. Over 4 years of experience in designing and conducting studies that address social determinants of health. Skilled in qualitative and quantitative research methodologies, with a focus on improving public policy related to mental health. Committed to translating research findings into actionable strategies that enhance community wellbeing.

EXPERIENCE

PUBLIC HEALTH RESEARCHER

City Health Department

2016 - Present

- Conducted research on the impact of socioeconomic factors on mental health service utilization.
- Utilized GIS tools to map community resources, enhancing accessibility for vulnerable populations.
- Facilitated focus groups to gather community feedback, leading to improved program design.
- Collaborated with city officials to develop policies based on research findings.
- Presented research outcomes to stakeholders, influencing local mental health funding decisions.
- Mentored undergraduate interns, fostering interest in public health research.

BEHAVIORAL RESEARCH ASSISTANT

University Health Center

2014 - 2016

- Assisted in the development of survey instruments for mental health assessments.
- Analyzed survey data using Excel, contributing to reports that informed university policy.
- Oversaw participant recruitment for studies, increasing enrollment by 30%.
- Coordinated workshops on mental health awareness for students and faculty.
- Collaborated on a research project that won a university grant for innovative practices.
- Provided administrative support for research projects, ensuring compliance with ethical standards.