

MICHAEL ANDERSON

Child Welfare Research Analyst

- San Francisco, CA
- (555) 234-5678
- michael.anderson@email.com

Innovative Child Welfare Specialist with a strong foundation in research and data analysis within the child welfare sector. Expertise in evaluating program effectiveness and utilizing evidence-based practices to enhance service delivery. Committed to leveraging data-driven insights to inform policy recommendations and program development. Proven track record of collaborating with stakeholders to implement systemic changes that improve child welfare outcomes.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Child Welfare Research Analyst | Child Welfare Research Institute

Jan 2022 – Present

- Conducted comprehensive evaluations of child welfare programs to assess effectiveness.
- Analyzed data sets to identify trends and inform policy decisions.
- Collaborated with researchers and practitioners to translate findings into practice.
- Presented research findings to stakeholders at conferences and workshops.
- Developed reports and policy briefs to communicate research outcomes.
- Engaged with community partners to understand local child welfare needs.

Program Evaluator | Child Services Evaluation Agency

Jul 2019 – Dec 2021

- Designed evaluation frameworks for child welfare programs.
- Conducted qualitative and quantitative research to measure program success.
- Collaborated with program managers to develop improvement plans.
- Facilitated focus groups to gather insights from service users.
- Reported on findings to inform funding and program decisions.
- Advocated for evidence-based practices in child welfare services.

SKILLS

research analysis program evaluation data analysis policy recommendations evidence-based practices stakeholder collaboration

EDUCATION

Master of Science in Social Work

2015 – 2019

Columbia University

ACHIEVEMENTS

- Published research on program effectiveness that influenced state policy changes.
- Awarded 'Best Research Paper' at the National Child Welfare Conference in 2022.
- Contributed to a 15% increase in program funding through data-driven advocacy efforts.

LANGUAGES

English Spanish French