

MICHAEL ANDERSON

Aquaculture Assistant

- San Francisco, CA
- (555) 234-5678
- michael.anderson@email.com

A motivated Finfish Production Specialist with a foundational experience of 2 years in aquaculture and fish production environments. Demonstrates a strong commitment to learning and applying best practices in fish farming. Skilled in monitoring fish health and maintaining optimal production conditions. A collaborative team member with a focus on sustainability and adherence to industry regulations.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Aquaculture Assistant | Ocean Harvest Ltd.

Jan 2022 – Present

- Assisted with daily operations of fish feeding and health checks.
- Monitored water quality and reported any issues to supervisors.
- Participated in training programs related to fish welfare.
- Maintained records of production metrics for analysis.
- Engaged in sustainability initiatives within the farm.
- Supported team efforts to improve operational efficiency.

Aquaculture Intern | Freshwater Solutions

Jul 2019 – Dec 2021

- Assisted in the breeding and care of finfish species.
- Conducted routine water quality tests and reported findings.
- Engaged in community outreach to promote aquaculture awareness.
- Maintained accurate records of fish growth and health.
- Learned about biosecurity measures and protocols.
- Participated in team meetings to discuss production goals.

SKILLS

Fish health monitoring

Aquaculture operations

Water quality assessment

Team collaboration

Sustainability practices

Record keeping

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Science in Fisheries Management

2021

University of Aquatic Studies

ACHIEVEMENTS

- Contributed to improved fish health outcomes through diligent monitoring.
- Participated in workshops focused on sustainable aquaculture practices.
- Recognized for commitment to team objectives and operational improvements.

LANGUAGES

English

Spanish

French