MA

Michael
ANDERSON

PROFESSOR OF JOURNALISM

Respected journalism academic with a robust record of teaching and research in media studies. A specialist in the intersection of journalism and technology, with a keen interest in the evolution of news dissemination in the digital age. Committed to equipping students with the necessary skills to navigate the complexities of contemporary journalism.

CONTACT

📞 (555) 234-5678

✉️ michael.anderson@email.com

🌐 www.michaelanderson.com

📍 San Francisco, CA

SKILLS

- Research Methodologies
- Digital Journalism
- Media Literacy
- Curriculum Development
- International Collaboration
- Scholarly Communication

LANGUAGES

- English
- Spanish
- French

EDUCATION

DOCTORATE IN JOURNALISM, UNIVERSITY OF MEDIA RESEARCH

ACHIEVEMENTS

- Recipient of the Distinguished Scholar Award, 2019.
- Published a widely-cited book on journalism in the digital age.
- Established a research grant for students focusing on media innovation.

WORK EXPERIENCE

PROFESSOR OF JOURNALISM

National University of Journalism

2020 - 2025

- Led research initiatives focused on the impact of technology on journalism practices.
- Developed and taught graduate-level courses in digital journalism.
- Supervised doctoral candidates in their research projects.
- Organized symposia on journalism ethics and technology.
- Engaged with media organizations to facilitate student internships.
- Published research findings in top-tier academic journals.

VISITING SCHOLAR

International Institute of Media Studies

2015 - 2020

- Conducted workshops on global journalism practices and ethics.
- Collaborated with international scholars on comparative media studies.
- Participated in curriculum development for international journalism programs.
- Facilitated student exchanges with partner institutions.
- Provided expert mentorship for students on research methodologies.
- Engaged in outreach activities to promote media literacy in local communities.