

Michael ANDERSON

HISTORICAL MILLWORK SPECIALIST

Dedicated millwork carpenter with a specialization in historical restoration and preservation. Possesses a profound understanding of traditional woodworking techniques, enabling the accurate replication of period-specific designs. Known for meticulous attention to detail and a strong commitment to authenticity in restoration projects. Successfully collaborates with preservationists and historians to ensure that all work meets the strict guidelines of historical accuracy.

CONTACT

- (555) 234-5678
- michael.anderson@email.com
- www.michaelanderson.com
- San Francisco, CA

SKILLS

- historical restoration
- traditional woodworking
- preservation standards
- research collaboration
- craftsmanship
- project documentation

LANGUAGES

- English
- Spanish
- French

EDUCATION

ASSOCIATE DEGREE IN HISTORIC PRESERVATION, COLLEGE OF HERITAGE STUDIES, 2014

ACHIEVEMENTS

- Awarded 'Outstanding Preservation Project' by the National Trust for Historic Preservation, 2021.
- Successfully restored over 30 historical sites with a focus on accuracy and authenticity.
- Published articles on historical woodworking techniques in industry magazines.

WORK EXPERIENCE

HISTORICAL MILLWORK SPECIALIST

Heritage Restoration Services

2020 - 2025

- Executed restoration projects on historical buildings, ensuring compliance with preservation standards.
- Replicated intricate millwork designs from historical records, achieving 100% accuracy.
- Collaborated with historians to research and verify period-specific construction methods.
- Utilized traditional hand tools alongside modern equipment to enhance craftsmanship.
- Conducted workshops on historical woodworking techniques for local carpenters.
- Maintained detailed documentation of restoration processes for future reference and audits.

MILLWORK APPRENTICE

Classic Woodworking Co.

2015 - 2020

- Assisted in the restoration of antique furniture and architectural details, preserving their historical integrity.
- Learned traditional techniques under the guidance of master carpenters, developing a deep appreciation for the craft.
- Participated in site assessments to evaluate restoration needs and plan projects accordingly.
- Maintained a clean and organized workspace, ensuring safety and efficiency.
- Documented restoration processes to build a portfolio of skills and experiences.
- Contributed to community events promoting historical preservation awareness.