

MICHAEL ANDERSON

Research Project Manager

Dynamic Non-Profit Research Analyst with a passion for social impact and a commitment to using research as a tool for change. Expertise in both qualitative and quantitative research methodologies allows for a comprehensive approach to understanding community needs. Proven history of working collaboratively with stakeholders to design research projects that are both relevant and impactful.

CONTACT

- (555) 234-5678
- michael.anderson@email.com
- San Francisco, CA

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Arts in Public Policy

New York University

2016-2020

SKILLS

- mixed-methods research
- community outreach
- data analysis
- training facilitation
- report drafting
- ethical research practices

LANGUAGES

- English
- Spanish
- French

WORK EXPERIENCE

Research Project Manager

2020-2023

Community Action Network

- Oversaw research projects from inception to completion, ensuring alignment with strategic goals.
- Utilized mixed-methods approaches to gather comprehensive data.
- Conducted training sessions for staff on research methodologies.
- Analyzed data trends to inform community outreach strategies.
- Facilitated discussions with community members to gather input on research priorities.
- Authored research briefs that communicated findings to stakeholders.

Research Intern

2019-2020

Youth Development Organization

- Assisted in data collection for youth program evaluations.
- Conducted literature reviews to support research projects.
- Analyzed qualitative data from focus groups and interviews.
- Collaborated with team members to draft research reports.
- Participated in community events to promote research initiatives.
- Maintained accurate records of project activities and outcomes.

ACHIEVEMENTS

- Increased community participation in research projects by 35%.
- Recognized for outstanding contributions to a youth program evaluation.
- Published findings in a non-profit sector journal.