MICHAEL ANDERSON

ASSESSMENT DIRECTOR

Results-oriented Online Learning Assessment Specialist with a focus on higher education. With over 10 years in academic administration, I have developed a keen understanding of the challenges faced by institutions in assessing online learning. My expertise lies in creating valid and reliable assessments that not only measure knowledge but also enhance the learning experience.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

National University   Mar 2018 - Present
Assessment Director

- Led the development and implementation of online assessment policies and procedures.
- Coordinated with faculty to align assessments with learning outcomes and accreditation standards.
- Utilized psychometric methods to analyze assessment data and improve reliability.
- Conducted training for faculty on best practices in online assessment design.
- Managed a team of assessment coordinators to ensure consistency in assessment delivery.
- Increased student pass rates by 15% through enhanced assessment strategies.

State College   Dec 2015 - Jan 2018
Assessment Analyst

- Conducted comprehensive evaluation of online assessment tools and methodologies.
- Collaborated with academic departments to gather assessment data for program reviews.
- Designed surveys to collect student feedback on assessment experiences.
- Analyzed trends in assessment data to inform curriculum development.
- Presented findings to stakeholders to promote data-driven decision-making.
- Achieved a 20% increase in student satisfaction with online assessments.

ACHIEVEMENTS

- Published a study on the impact of online assessments on student learning outcomes in a national journal.
- Led a successful accreditation review resulting in full accreditation status for the university.
- Received the 'Faculty Excellence Award' for contributions to assessment practices in 2018.
