HEALTHCARE POLICY RESEARCHER

Innovative public policy researcher with a specialization in healthcare policy and over 7 years of experience in the field. My work involves extensive qualitative and quantitative research aimed at improving healthcare access and outcomes. I have worked with governmental and non-profit organizations to analyze healthcare policies and their effects on marginalized communities.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Health Policy Institute

Mar 2018 - Present

Healthcare Policy Researcher

- Conducted comprehensive evaluations of state healthcare programs and their effectiveness.
- Analyzed data on health disparities to inform policy recommendations.
- Collaborated with healthcare providers to develop community health initiatives.
- Presented findings to stakeholders, including government officials and community leaders.
- Utilized statistical software to assess policy impacts on healthcare access.
- Engaged with local organizations to gather qualitative data through interviews.

Center for Health Services Research

Dec 2015 - Jan 2018

Research Assistant

- Supported research projects on the effects of health insurance policies on low-income populations.
- Conducted literature reviews to summarize existing research on healthcare access.
- Assisted in data collection and analysis for policy impact assessments.
- Collaborated with interdisciplinary teams to enhance research design.
- Participated in community outreach to promote research studies.
- Assisted in preparing reports and presentations for funding agencies.

ACHIEVEMENTS

- Authored a report that led to a 20% increase in funding for community health programs.
- Recognized for outstanding research at the National Conference on Health Policy.
- Successfully led a community health initiative that improved access to services for 500+ families.
