MICHAEL ANDERSON

LEAD RESEARCHER

Innovative Social Researcher with a focus on educational equity and youth engagement. With over 6 years of experience in educational research, I have dedicated my career to exploring the systemic barriers that limit educational opportunities for marginalized communities. My expertise lies in conducting mixed-methods research, utilizing both qualitative interviews and quantitative surveys to gather comprehensive data on student experiences.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Equity in Education Project

Mar 2018 - Present

Lead Researcher

- Directed a comprehensive study on the impact of socioeconomic factors on student achievement.
- Designed and implemented mixed-methods research strategies to gather data from diverse student populations.
- Analyzed and interpreted data, presenting findings to educational leaders and stakeholders.
- Facilitated workshops with educators to disseminate research findings and promote equitable practices.
- Collaborated with district officials to align research goals with educational policies.
- Co-authored a policy brief that led to significant funding increases for targeted schools.

National Institute for Educational Research

Dec 2015 - Jan 2018

Research Associate

- Conducted qualitative interviews with students and teachers to assess educational needs in underserved areas.
- Collaborated with data analysts to integrate qualitative insights into quantitative research frameworks.
- Compiled and analyzed data for annual reports on educational equity.
- Supported the development of research proposals for funding opportunities.
- Presented research findings at educational conferences, fostering discussions on equity.
