ACHIEVEMENTS

- Received the Excellence in Research Award from Child Welfare Services in 2021.
- Increased community awareness of child welfare issues by 45% through outreach programs.
- Published multiple articles in family sociology journals, contributing to the field.

Motivated sociologist with a focus on family sociology and child development. With 6 years of experience, I specialize in researching family dynamics and their impact on child well-being. My work has involved extensive qualitative research, including interviews and case studies, to understand the experiences of families from diverse backgrounds. I aim to inform policy discussions on family welfare and child protection.
