

MICHAEL ANDERSON

Transition Specialist

Experienced Special Education Learning Coach with a focus on transition planning for students with disabilities. Over 7 years of experience in developing programs that facilitate successful transitions from school to post-secondary education or employment. Skilled in collaborating with families, educators, and community agencies to provide comprehensive support. Strong advocate for the inclusion of students with disabilities in all aspects of school life and post-graduation opportunities.

CONTACT

- (555) 234-5678
- michael.anderson@email.com
- San Francisco, CA

EDUCATION

Bachelor's Degree in Special Education

City College
2015

SKILLS

- Transition Planning
- Career Readiness
- Community Collaboration
- Program Development
- Family Engagement
- Advocacy

LANGUAGES

- English
- Spanish
- French

WORK EXPERIENCE

Transition Specialist

2020-2023

Future Pathways Institute

- Developed individualized transition plans that increased post-secondary enrollment rates by 30%.
- Facilitated workshops on life skills and career readiness for students.
- Collaborated with local businesses to create internship opportunities for students.
- Monitored student progress and adjusted transition plans based on ongoing assessments.
- Supported families in understanding resources available for post-school options.
- Organized community events to raise awareness about disability inclusion.

Special Education Teacher

2019-2020

Springfield High School

- Implemented individualized education plans focused on transition goals.
- Provided counseling and support for students navigating post-graduation options.
- Coordinated with vocational training programs to enhance student skills.
- Developed partnerships with community organizations to facilitate student support.
- Conducted assessments to guide students in their career choices.
- Participated in student-led conferences to enhance self-advocacy skills.

ACHIEVEMENTS

- Increased student job placement rates by 25% through dedicated transition services.
- Recognized for outstanding contributions to transition planning in education.
- Successfully launched a mentorship program linking students with local professionals.